NEW JERSEY TOWN STIRRED BY CRIME

Negro Suspect Held For Smith Murder Protected From Mob Violence.

POLICE AND THE MOB CLASH

Negro Makes Denial While Gazing Into Dead Girl's Eyes—Mutilated Body Found in Woods—Reward Offered.

Asbury Park, N. J., Nov. 14.—Thomas Williams, the negro whose arrest followed the discovery of little Marie Smith's mutilated body in a clump of woods yesterday, was not even removed from his cell for court procedure today, so fearful were the police of mob violence. A guard surrounded the jail all day and had not dispersed late tonight.

To carry out the requirements of the law, the negro was informally arraigned today as he stood in his cell and was held without bail for further examination.

William H. Smith, chief of police of Asbury Park, held a conference with the prisoner today and announced afterwards that Williams apparently had established a good alibi. Many persons were inclined to think the man a victim of circumstances, but this does not seem to soften the high feeling in the city.

The child's mother is still in a serious condition from brief and shock.

In an attempt to wring a confession from the prisoner the child's body was brought into the jail corridor this evening. The negro was led forth and halted beside it.

"I swear to God I did not harm the girl. I had nothing to do with it," said he firmly.

"Get down and looked into her eyes and say that," he was commanded. Williams leaned forward until he was gazing straight into the dead eyes. His gaze did not waver and he exclaimed:

"God is my witness that I did not kill this girl. I did not touch her. I did not harm her. I do not know who did."

Again and again he repeated this while his hand lay on the body. Then he added: "I thank God I can say and sorrow for her family, but I had and sorroy for her family, but I had nothing to do with this."

There was a clash between the police and mob late tonight which was precipitated when a newspaper's automobile came dashing up and stopped in front of the jail door. Instantly the crowd jumped to the conclusion that Williams was to be brought out and whisked away to a safe place.

With a yell the crowd surged forward, but the police were on the alert and with clubs swinging they drove the rioters back and cleared a working space for 200 feet in front of the jail. In the struggle the police captured a sledge hammer and several crow bars.

With these indications of grim intent the chief ordered the mob driven further back and the work was quietly, but effectively done, the mob being steadily forced back for several blocks in each direction. Chief Smith then went out and pleaded with the men as peaceful citizens to go home. He told them that Williams was only held as a suspect, and there was no positive evidence against him. The crowd jeered, but tried nothing more serious.

The Asbury Park common council tonight offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer.

Second New Jersey Outrage.

Woodbury, N. J., Nov. 14.—Captured today by a posse which had scoured the countryside for 36 hours, Poland Black, a young negro farm hand, is accused of an attempted attack upon Miss Letitia Nutt. He was secretly hurried to the coroner's jail here before excited residents could form a mob and is held without bail pending examination.

Miss Nutt, who is 20 years old, was traversing a lonely section, accompanied only by her younger sister, Margaret, when a negro seized her. By hard struggling, both she and her sister succeeded in escaping and an alarm was given, resulting in Black's arrest.

WITT CO., TO CONTINUE.

Erroneous Impression Regarding Shoe Business in Lynchburg.

Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 14.—An Associated Press dispatch of November 6th reported the purcahse by the Craddock-Terry Company of a controlling interest of the George D. Witt Shoe Company, of Lynchburg. This dispatch has created an erroneous impression to the effect that the Witt Company is to discontinue its extensive manufacturing business. This is by no means the fact; the business will be perpetuated as of January 1st under a reorganization, but continuing the same name and with the same personnel with the single exception of the retirement of George D. Witt, the present executive head. The change, far from meaning a discontinuance, involves a marked increase in the business of the Company.

TRAGEDY STOPS OTHER GAMES

Football Schedules of Two Colleges Cancelled—Warrant for Murder Issued Sunday—Aftermath of Fatality.

Bethany, W. Va., Nov. 14.—There will be no more football at Bethany this year, as a result of the tragedy at Wheeling Saturday afternoon when Capt. Rudolph Munk, of the West Virginia University, was fatally injured in the game with Bethany College. At a meeting of the faculty and the student body today it was voted to abolish the remaining scheduled games.

President T. E. Gramblett deplored the tragedy. Resolutions were adopted extending sympathy to the family and to West Virginia University that the heretofore friendly athletic relations should be ruffled by an accident for which the college disclaimed all responsibility.

Morgantown, W. Va., Nov. 14.—The University council of West Virginia University today cancelled the remaining football games scheduled because of the death Saturday of Capt. Rudolph Munk. Charles Hogg, dean of the University law school, was directed to represent the University at the funeral of the young man.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 14.—The coroner tonight returned a verdict of accidental death in the case of Rudolph Munk, the West Virginia University played, who died of injuries in a football game Saturday.

Warrant for Murder.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 13.—A warrant for Thomas McCoy, right end of the Bethany college football team, charging him with murder in connection with the death of Capt. Rudolph Munk, of the West Virginia University team, was issued here today by Magistrate R. G. Hobbs. The action followed partial completion of the inquest by Coroner W. W. Rogers.

Munk sustained injuries in the game between the two teams here Saturday from which he died within five hours without regaining consciousness.

The testimony upon which the warrant was issued was furnished principally by Homer N. Young, a Pittsburg attorney, who umpired the game. Young testified that Munk was making interference and was a few yards in front of the scrimmage line when McCoy came up to the West Virginia captain, striking him in the head. Munk fell to the ground unconscious and Young ordered McCoy from the field.

The autopsy disclosed the fact that Munk's death was caused by a blood clot at the base of his brain and could not have been the result of a former injury. The dead athlete's body was removed today to his home at Connellsville, Pa. McCoy lives at Canton, Ohio.

Funeral of Munk.

Connellsville, Pa., Nov. 14.—Funeral services for Rudolph Munk will be held here Wednesday morning from the Church of Immaculate Conception of which Munk was a member. The members of the Connellsville high school team, of which he was formerly a member, will attend in a body.

Munk's body arrived here today from Wheeling and was taken to the home of his parents. He was accompanied by a brother, Lawrence, and H. E. Pocock, the University football manager.

Accidental Death.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 14.—The inquest held tonight into the cause of the death of Capt. Rudolph Munk, of the West Virginia University eleven, during the game here Saturday with the Bethany College team, resulted in a verdict by the jury that Munk came to his death accidentally. The warrant for the arrest of Thomas McCoy, of Canton, Ohio, the Bethany player, charged with causing the injuries that caused death, will be withdrawn at the instance of the coroner.

McCoy was not present at the inquest, nor was his father, but they were represented by attorneys from Canton.

The wording of the verdict follows: "That the evidence in this case is conflicting; therefore, we believe that Rudolph Munk came to his death November 12th, 1910, by colliding with Thomas McCoy in a game of football played in Ohio county, State of West Virginia."

"That means accidental death," said Coroner Rogers, "and ends any prosecution of McCoy."

The most important testimony came before the jury in the shape of a special delivery letter to the coroner from Homer Young, the ex-Michigan player, who officiated as umpire. On Sunday he had given testimony tending to show that McCoy had intentionally struck down Munk and it was on the strength of his version of the tragic affairs that the warrant for murder followed.

In his letter placed before the coroner's jury tonight, Young says:

"I cannot state with absolute positiveness that McCoy struck Munk, although it appeared to me that he struck at him about the head. I cannot state with absolute positiveness that the act was done intentionally, although there may have been circumstances from which it may be inferred that there was intention and deliberation to strike."

Three doctors who examined Munk before and after death testified that there was an injury at the back of the head, where a blood clot had formed; also that there were evidences of a former blood clot from an old injury. Death was due to the injury received in last Saturday's game, they stated.

TAFT AT PANAMA INSPECTING CANAL

President Expressed Himself As Pleased With Affairs on the Zone.

TOLL RATES ARE DISCUSSED

Given Cordial Welcome by Officials—Landed at Colon—Will Inspect Naval Base at Guantanamo on Return Home.

Panama, Nov. 14.—President Taft's first day on the Panama Isthmus was spent at the house of Lieut. Col. Goethals, the chief engineer of the canal, in going over detailed reports of the progress of the work and in consulting the chiefs of departments. President Taft expressed himself as greatly pleased at the condition of affairs and especially over the fact that the recent land slides in Culebra Cut are not regarded here as in any way serious.

The President landed at Colon this morning from the armored cruiser Tennessee, after a splendid voyage. The Panaman and Zone officials met the President and the party proceeded to Col. Goethal's house at Culebra, where he was in conference most of the afternoon. The principal subject of discussion was toll rates. Bernard Baker, of Baltimore, took part in the conference in behalf of the shipping interests. The question of fortifications also was taken up. No decisions will be announced until all matters pertaining to the canal are presented to Congress in a special message during the Winter. President Taft tomorrow will start on an inspection tour. He will first visit Gatun Dam. The visit to Culebra cut wil be made on Wednesday and an insection of the locks on Thursday. He will dine with President Aerosemena on Wednesday at Hotel Central, leaving American territory for the second time during his administration.

The party will embark at Colon on Thursday evening. Prior to leaving for home President Taft will make a brief inspection of the proposed naval base at Guantanamo, Cuba. He has not yet decided whether or not he will land there.

ARTIST JOHN LaFARGE DEAD.

Well Known American Painter Passes Away After Brief Illness.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 14.—Artist John LaFarge, of New York, and Newport, died at the Butler hospital here tonight. He was brought to the hospital about three months ago from Newport, following a general breakdown and his death was not expected. His wife was at the bedside when death came.

John LaFarge was born in New York, March 31, 1835. He early began the study of architectual decorations and then took up painting with Coutue in Paris devoting himself to religious subjects, flowers, portraiture and landscapes. After a period of book and magazine illustrating he gave his attention to mural paintings of a religious and ecclesiastical character. Many years ago Mr. LaFarge invented new methods for the making of stained glass windows, which reformed the art of the glass stainer.

He was married to Margaret Perry in Newport, R. I., where he had made his residence and maintained his studio in New York. He was a former president of the Society of American Artists, president of the Society of Mural Painters, honorary member of the American Institute of Architects, Chevalier and officer of the Legion of Honor of France and the author of various works on art subjects.

SHOT HUSBAND THEN HERSELF

New York Physician Killed by Wife. Wanted to Die and Carry Hir With Her—Ill Health the Cause of Tragedy.

New York, Nov. 14.—Dr. Theodor B. Burgtorf was shot and killed by his wife, Anna, in their home in Bronx borough today.

After shooting her husband, Mrs. Burgtorf turned the revolver on herself, the bullet entering her abdomen. She was taken in an unconscious condition to a hospital, where it was said that she probably would die. The cause of the shooting is not known. It developed that Mrs. Burgtorf had long been the victim of a facial disease which caused her excruciating pain. This, she gasped out at the hospital, made her wish to die, and she shot her husband, who is a prominent physician in the upper part of the city, because she could not bear to leave him behind.

The physician was shot as he lay sleeping, the bullet penetrating his side. When rolled to the floor and breathed his last, his wife quickly shot herself in the abdomen and side.

Before she lapsed into unconsciousness the woman managed to tell the story of her suffering and its effects.

Of her husband she said: "I just couldn't bear to die and leave him behind because I loved him so," she moaned. "Jealousy—yes, that's what it is. May be it's selfish of me, but I just couldn't help it."

Although in an extremely critical condition Mrs. Burgtorf refused to let hospital surgeons operate on her tonight. She was determined to die, she said feebly, and would sanction no attempt to prolong her life.

CATHOLICS VOICE NUMBER PROTESTS

Opening Day of Convention of American Federation in New Orleans.

TOO FEW HOLD PUBLIC OFFICE

Features of the Report of President Edward Feeney—Attacks Upon Theatres and Extravagance—Sensationalism.

New Orleans, Nov. 14.—Protests against the proportionately small number of Catholics holding Federal and State offices in this country and the failure of State to pay for secular education in Roman Catholic schools, featured the annual report of President Edward Feeney, of Brooklyn, N. Y., at today's session of the ninth annual convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies.

"The Federation has no candidate for public place," he said, "but it seems that in proportion to the number of Catholics under the flag here and in our insular possessions, we have by no means a sumcient representation in the public service. Further, those selected by our government for responsible public positions should be real and not nominal Catholics."

Turning to theatres, he said:

"An indignant Catholic protests that devotees of the so-called 'advanced school during the last few years have deluged the United States with an obscene drama which scoffs at marriage, and as a result this element, social purity has become the target for the shafts of the voluntary, a fertile source of ribald jest to the vulgar humorist and never-failing mine of indelicate innuendo to the dramatist. The obscene play has been supplemented by the immoral and pernicious motion picture show which debauches young children."

"Extravagance," he said, "rules among many of our people, and, sad to relate, in proportion as some of them prosper their love of God weakens. The fight for morality goes on today as it did one hundred years ago. We pray that the riotous living and irreligion of some of our people may not endanger the life of the Republic. We believe that without religion our most enlightened government of today would drift into the decay and chaos that overwhelmed Greece and Rome."

He commended the efforts of the individual and of the social justice league to combat socialism. The League's purpose, he said, was to make clear the principles at issue between American thought and life and the economic and political revolution proposed by socialism to uphold the American ideal of home, the integrity of the family, the love of country and to maintain the everlasting reality of religion as the foundation of our civilization.

President Feeney paid his respects to Mayor Nathan, of Rome, for his attacks on the Pope and the Catholic church and urged the Federation to add its protest "against the insults heaped upon the sovereign pontiff by the jackals who find the lion of the fold hemmed within the walls of the Vatican."

He gave a parting shot to the "scurrilous" newspaper writer and the "muck-raker" of the magazines and said that in this day of universal reading the members of the faith must be vigilant in controverting the misrepresentation in print of the Catholic religion and the defamation of its members.

HIGH EXPLOSIVE TEST.

Will Be Witnessed by Army and Navy Executives.—Trial Today.

Washington, Nov. 14.—A party of navy and army officers left Washington tonight for Norfolk to witness the high explosive experiment to which the monitor Puritain will be subjected tomorrow. Among the officers were Admiral Mason, chief of the Naval Bureau of Ordinance; Admiral Watt, chief of the Naval Bureau of Construction; General Murray, chief of coast artillery, and Colonel Bailey, of the coast artillery corps.

The test will be made in accordance with a provision of the naval appropriation bill and will consist of exploding about 200 pounds of gelatine in an unconfined charge against the after-turret of the monitor, for the purpose of determining the extent of damage such an explosion would have upon a war vessel. The experiment will be held in Hampton Roads.

Captain Knight, president of the special board on naval ordinances, has charge of the test. The waters of Hampton Roads within 1,000 yards of the Puritain will be kept clear of craft in order to obviate any possibility of other vessels being damaged by the explosion.

Washington, Nov. 14—The Supreme court of the United States today adjourned for its Thanksgiving recess. It will re-convene on November 28th.

LESS DESERTIONS FROM ARMY

Material Reduction Shown in Annual Report to Secretary of War.—General Strength of Army.—Other Details.

Washington, Nov. 14.—The number of desertions from the enlisten strength of the regular army of the United States during the last fiscal year was materially less than the record of any year since 1899, according to the report of Adjutant General Ainsworth, which was presented to the Secretary of War today.

The official returns showed 3,464 desertions last year, or 3.66 per cent., of the total number of enlisted men in the service or of enlistment contracts in force during the year. This was a decrease of 30.6 per cent., as compared with the preceding fiscal year when desertions constituted 4.97 per cent. of the total enlisted force.

Last year's record eclipses the showing of every year since 1899 for which the percentage of desertions was only 3.22, while in 1898 they were 1.57.

The gratifying reduction in the desertion ratio is ascribed by General Ainsworth to the continuance of systematic and vigorous efforts to arrest and punish deserters. Of the white troops 3.77 per cent., and of the colored soldiers only 1.35 per cent. were reported as deserters.

The percentages of desertions from the British army during the year ending September 30, 1909, was 1.18.

General Ainsworth urges the pursuit and punishment of deserters not for the corrective effect such action may have on the deserters themselves, but for the deterent effect upon others, and from this point of view he argues the inadvisability of restoring apprehended or surrendered deserters to duty and to a status of honor in the army.

In regard to the actual strength of the army on October 15, 1910, the report shows that there were 4,310 officers and 67,459 enlisted men in the regular army and 166 officers and 5,100 enlisted men in the Philippine scouts, making a total of 4,467 officers and 72,559 enlisted men not including 3,486 enlisted men of the hospital corps, but including 179 first lieutenants of the medical reserve corps on active duty.

GEORGIA FUGITIVE HELD.

In Jail in Canton, Ohio, Charged With Fraud.—Details.

Canton, Ohio, Nov. 14.—W. T. Merrick, salesman and former wealthy Georgia manufacturer, charged with being a fugitive from justice in Georgia, in an affidavit sworn to by N. L. Tankersly, of Elijah, Ga., was given a hearing before Police Judge Quinn this afternoon. He was committed to prison to await the extradition papers. The affidavit to substantiate the charge of being a fugitive from justice contains the allegation that Merrick obtained, by fraudulent methods, $250 worth of goods from Webb & Company, merchants, at Elijah, in 1907. According to Tankersley this is only one specific case of alleged fraud. Tankersley declared that Merrick is under indictment in many places for similar offensese and placed his gain by alleged fraudulent methods at many thousands of dollars.

Governor Harmon today wired to the Canton chief of ponce to hold Merrick.

According to telegrams received here Merrick is wanted in several States to answer to charges of obtaining money under false pretenses in lumber deals.

SCHOONER CREW RESCUED

Attracted Steamer by Burning Tar Barrels—Heavy Westerly Wind.

New York, Nov. 14.—The steamship Livingstone, arriving tonight from Cuba had on board, Captain F. E. Lawry, his wife and crew of five, of the schooner Lucy E. Friend, which sprung a leak at sea after having left Newport News for Bridgeport, Conn., on November 12th.

As a heavy westerly wind was blowing Captain Lawry began steering due east, running before the wind. Several tar barrels were burned on the deck and he finally attracted the attention of the Livingstone at 2 A. M. yesterday, which took all hands aboard. The schooner which was 28 years old and owned by Walter Friend & Company, of Boston, was left to her fate.

FLIES FROM DECK OF NAVAL CRUISER

Aviator Ely's Flight Across Hampton Roads Shows Need of Aero in Navy.

FACTOR TO BE DEALT WITH

First Flight of the Kind Ever Attempted—Struck the Water and Damaged One of the Planes—Features.

Fort Monroe, Va., Nov. 14.—Aerial navigation proved today that it is a factor which must be dealt with in the naval tactics of the world's future, if the successful flight by Eugene B. Ely, in a Curtiss bi-plane, from the deck of the cruiser Birmingham can be taken as a crietrion. From Hampton Roads, the scene 45 years of another epoch in the history of naval warfare when anironclad proved its superiority over the former type of fight vessel, the aviator today flew across the lower end of Chesepeake Bay landing on the opposite side from this fort.

With a broken propellor and in weather conditions unfavorable for flying, the daring birdman shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon glided from the platform erected on the front of the big, black cruiser, swooped down like an immense bird of prey until he touched the water, then rose rapidly into the misty air of the lower bay and was off in the direction of the broad Atlantic.

Four minutes after having taken his sudden farewell of the Birmingham he was a lost speck on the Eastern horizon and an instant later had landed safely on Willoughby Spit. The impact with which the big machine struck the water after its 37-foot drop from the front of the cruiser caused one of the propellor blades to be jagged as if a heavy, coarse saw had gone along its edge and a small piece was split from the blade, but not for an instant was the speed of the aeroplane lessened, and it darted away with express train rapidity on its victorious flight. Intermittent rain throughout the day, several small hail showers and a continuous fog almost compelled the aviator to postpone his flight. But he was determined to prove, as he said after the flight, that he could accomplish more than had been expected of him.

Furthermore he did not wait for the Birmingham to get into motion which would have added to his momentum and have been a great help to him; but seizing an opportune moment between showers, he was off before those who were on the ship with him and on the other vessels stationed at various points nearby to follow and assist him in case of need, were aware that he was ready for his wonderful flight, the first of its kind the world has ever seen.

Ely proved today that it is possible to fly safely from a ship and, after having done this, asserted with emphasis that it would be an easy matter for an aeroplane to alight on a vessel, either while the latter was moving or standing still. Naval experts who witnessed the flight, expressed the belief that the navies of the world in the future must take the aeroplane into consideration when mapping out plans of action.

Captain Washington I. Chambers, who has been detailed by the Navy Department, as chairman of aBoard for Aeronautical Investigation, declared that the flight was more than he had anticipated and that he is confident that the time is near when all scout cruisers will be equipped with a number of aeroplanes. They would not be for battleship use, he explained, but for scout duty in connection with the work of the scout cruisers of the navy. "When Mr. Ely flew with such ease from a standing ship," he said, "it showed beyond doubt that his task would have been much simpler if the Birmingham had been moving.

Starting out from the Norfolk navy yard at 10:30 o'clock from the Birmingham closely followed by the swift grey hounds of the navy, the two torpedo boat destroyers, Roe and Terry and by the torpedo boats Bailey and Stringham, it was fully four hours later before Mr. Ely's machine was working to his full satisfaction.

The machine in which he flew was on which Glenn Curtiss sailed down through the air channels of the Hudson river valley from Albany to New York. It had seen two previous cross-water flights, one over Lake Erie from Euclid beach to Cedar Point, and back, a distance of 70 miles; the other by Mr. Curtiss himself over the Atlantic ocean off Atlantic City, when it covered a distance of fifty miles.

The distance which Mr. Ely flew today was nearly five miles. The Birmingham was lying in the Roads only a quarter of a mile from the Hotel Chamberlin, but in making his flight Willioughbys Spit, he flew in a curve so that, while the exact distance could not be determined it was believed he covered almost five miles. It was 3:16 o'clock when he took to the air; five minutes later he was safe on the solid soil of Virginia, a few miles north of Norfolk.

Mr. Ely after being brought back on a launch and placed aboard the Roe said he was not fond of the water; but he had conquered his fears long enough to remain over it in fog and accomplish his purpose.

When he struck the water on diving off the 83 foot platform erected on the bow of the Birmingham, salt water dashed into his face and goggles, so that he could not be seen for several minutes in which direction he was going. He had planned to take a somewhat different course from the one which he actually followed and land a little further to the north. The highest height he attained was estimated at about 500 feet.

His striking the water, he said afterward, was due to a slight miscalculation. He had planned before he left the incline on the Birmingham to drop near the water so as to get the momentum which he wanted to carry him upwards; but he over-reached the mark slightly. When he struck and the spray dashed up over him and his machine, everybody on the watching boats had an involuntary sigh and almost said to himself, "he's down;" but this sigh was suppressed in the pleasure everybody felt when the graceful white winged gull, after dipping it's wings, shot up and away through the mist.

Mr. Ely went back to Norfolk immediately after the flight; and if weather conditions tomorrow are favorable will attempt a flight over the city. The following day he is away to show his prowess of the air in a flight he will give at Raleigh.

Mr. Ely is young and modest and did not seem much inclined to talk of himself or of his achievements; but his chief mechanic did most of the talking for him.

It is believed that Mr. Ely by his flight today has incidentally won for himself a $500 prize offered by John Barry Ryan for the first flight of a mile or more from an ship to land.

Further experiments of a similar nature it is believed, will be conducted in the near future by the Navy Department. The opinion was freely expressed on all sides today that the aeroplane must be taken seriously in naval warefare in the future.

FEDERATION OF LABOR.

Convened at St. Louis Yesterday—Mission Makes Report.

St. Louis Mo., Nov. 14.—The American Federation of Labor convened today and prepared to get down to actual business at tomorrow's session. The report of the credentials committee showed that the deliberations of the body would be controlled by the miners' unions of the country, that branch of labor having 2,307 votes while the carpenters are next with 612 votes.

The report of Secretary Morrison was read this afternoon. It showed that the conventions reports 1,561,151 trade unionists. The organization of working committees, which will transact the business of the Federation, will be named tomorrow, when the report of the executive committee will be read.

President Samuel Gompers urged that the delegates speedily proceed to the transaction of business. He discussed the contempt case against himself, John Mitchell and Secretary Morrison. This is the case instituted by the Buck Stove and Range Company of St. Louis. The United States Court of the District of Columbia sentenced Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison to jail for failure to obey an injunction forbidding the maintenance of a boycott against the Buck Stove Company.

A ROYAL MARRIAGE.

Prince Victor Bonaparte and Princess Clementine the Parties.

Turin, Italy, Nov. 14.—The marriage of Prince Victor Napoleon Bonaparte, cousin of King Victor Emmanuel and pretender to the throne of France and Princess Clementine, daughter of the late King Leopold, of Belgium, which has been looked forward to with so much interest was celebrated today at Moncalieri, a village picturesquely situated on a hill a few miles from her. The ceremony took place in the Royal Castle, erected in the fifteenth century, to which Princess Clotilde, sister of King Humbert and mother of Prince Victor Napoleon retired after the overtarow of the French Empire.

Public rejoicing marked the occasion. The streets were decorated profusely, bands played in the squares and flags waved from the castle, the municipal buildings and many private houses. All the members of the Savoy and Bonaparte families were present, including Prince Louis Napoleon, the younger brother of the pretender, who for some time had not been on good terms with the bridegroom, but who agreed to a reconciliation on this occasion chiefly through the efforts of his mother.

A., took the Plaza cup at the horse show this afternoon, bringing a conquest to the United States Army in its first horse show competition in a quarter of a century. Deliberation, a bay gelding, ridden by Colonel P. A. McKenna, of London, was second, and Black Paddy, a black gelding of Lieutenant Coblyn's, of the Royal Dutch Hussars, was third. The event was of International scope and called for the judging of 18 officers, chargers ridden by officers in uniform.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 14.—The Navy Department will conduct one of the most important ordnance tests in recent years tomorrow in the Newport News middle grounds near Hampton Roads. Two charges of explosive gelatin will be ignited against the ormor plate of the monitor Puritan for the purpose of determining the extent of damage caused by the explosion of a high charge of unconfined explosive against armor plate.

Our National Game.

"The raw American citizen," says Ellis Parker Butler in Success Magazine, "who takes his seat at a ball game for the first time feels as he would should he drop into the Metropolitan Opera House and find himself hearing Wagnerian opera from a seat in the midst of seasoned German opera goers. He hears a language that is new to him. The man at his right can tell more about the first baseman's peculiarities than he could tell about the manners of his own wife. The man at his left has trouble remembering the size collar he wears, but he can name every man in every club of both major leagues, tell the age of each, give the complete table of batting records offhand and recite, item by item, every feature of every game played on the home grounds during the last five years. That is why baseball is our national game. We love the game not because we are Chicagoans and the Chicago nine wins nor because we are Pittsburgers and the Pittsburg nine is winning, but because we are educated in baseball and like to see a good game played by the best men in their field that can be found in the world."

Her Father's Job.

The young daughter of a popular Chicago clergyman some time ago manifested a quick wit. Her father had gone on a brief holiday with a business parishioner and associate, and the talk of the children turned on the problem of which father needed the rare rest most sorely.

"Well, I think my father works the hardest," said little Miss Business, "and his work keeps him stirred up and anxious most of the time."

"Your father may work the hardest in one way," was little Miss Clergyman's answer, at once thoughtful and diplomatic, "but I think he gets more rest as he goes along. You see, he can let down a little evenings and Sundays, and if he gets cross and nervous nobody says anything. But my daddy has to be better than ever Sundays and evenings, because then everybody's taking notice and the whole lot of us children are around."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Shortened His Wait.

"Experience," said Mark Twain once, "makes us wise, but it also makes us hard. Consider the old, experienced man in the busy restaurant. He took a seat, looked round him and, pointing to a well dressed gentleman who had not yet been served, said to the waiter:

"'Walter, how long has that gentleman been here?

"'About twelve minutes, sir,' the waiter answered.

"'What's his order?

"'Porterhouse and French fried, sir, with mince pie and coffee to come.'

"The old man, hardened by experience, slipped a quarter in the waiter's hand.

"'Waiter,' he said, 'I'm in a hurry. Put on another porterhouse and bring ma[illegible]'

OLD SORES
DUE TO DISEASED BLOOD

Every symptom of an old sore suggests diseased blood. The inflammation, discharge, discolored flesh, and the fact that local applications have no permanent effect toward healing the ulcer, shows that deep down in the system there is a morbid cause for the sore. But more convincing proof that bad blood is the cause for these places is furnished by the fact that even removing the sore or ulcer by surgical operation does not cure; they always return. Nature will heal any sore if the blood is pure and healthy, but until the circulation is cleansed of all impure matter and supplied with nourishing and plasmic qualities the infected condition of flesh is OBLIGED to remain. S. S. S. heals Old Sores in a perfectly natural way. It goes into the blood, removes the impurities and morbid matters, adds nourishing qualities to this vital fluid, and brings about the very conditions that are necessary before any sore can heal. S.S.S. is a perfect blood purifier, acting directly on the circulation through the stomach and digestive members. Its use makes rich, red, healthy blood, which nourishes all flesh tissues instead of infecting them with the virulent matter which keep old sores open. SHOE MAKING FACTS
No. 1

CRADDOCK
Soles — Counters — Heels

The life of any shoe depends on the integrity of the outer sole, the inner sole, the counter and the heel. No matter how handsome a shoe looks on the outside, or how well it feels on the foot—if the vitals are cheapened the whole shoe is weakened.

Right here is where many makers economize. No one can see the insole—no one can see the counter—no one can see any of the heel but the top lift—so they substitute a soft, spongy, flank leather for the insole and maybe use a counter made of canvas stiffened with glue and scraps of leather for the heel.

If there's any one virtue about the Craddock Shoe that is more pronounced than any other—it is the foundation. We have spared nothing to get the best. The sole (4) is the first grade of old method tanned steer's hide. The insole (5) is a slightly lighter piece of the same stock, selected for smoothness, pliability and toughness. Craddock counters (3) are cut fro stout grain leather; each is a single piece. Craddock heels are solid all through. The top lift alone costs more than the whole heel of some shoes of equal price.

We've made every vital part strong. How we carefully cut and fit the vamps and tops of firm, fine leather is another story.

The Craddock dealer in your town will tell you all about it. We shall tell it in type shortly. Watch for it.

RIVERS AND HARBORS.

North Carolina's Waterways Association Announces Congress in Washington.

The following notice is being mailed to prominent men in all parts of the State, announcing the forthcoming session of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress in Washington:

Dear Sir:—The Seventh Annual Convention of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress will be held at Washington, D. C., December 7th, 8th and 9th, at the New Willard hotel, President Taft will make the opening address, followed by a number of the most prominent and influential men of the Nation. This meeting will undoubtedly be the greatest occasion in the history of the organization, and one of the most important in the commercial and physical development of the country. Delegates from every section of the United States will attend the Congress.

From a commercial aspect, the development of the waterways of this State is of vital importance to every business man in North Carolina, affecting, as it does, our transportation facilities and the regulation of freight rates. The deepening of the Cape Fear River is generally recognized as a matter of statewide importance, for, in making Wilmington a gateway, it will afford ample transportation facilities and a lower basing rate than we are enjoying, and these rates will necessarily affect every section of North Carolina.

We write to ask that you attend the meeting as a representative of this Association, and further, that you suggest the names of such persons as you may know who may be able to attend. Our representatives will be commissioned by the Governor, and will receive every consideration from the officers of the Congress. A special rate of three cents per mile for the round trip, or about one-half the regular fare, will be made from this territory, and we trust that you may be able to take advantage of this opportunity to mingle with some of America's foremost men. Kindly advise me if you will be able to attend, and also suggest the names of other possible delegates. Awaiting your reply, and assuring you of our appreciation of your assistance, I am,

Yours very truly,
MEARES HARRISS, Sec.

MAJORITY IN UNION.

Parker's Own County Went Against Him—Murder Trial.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Monroe, N. C., Nov. 14.—The election returns filed by the Board of County Canvassers for Union county Saturday contain the official figures for the election in Union county. The State Democratic ticket carried an average vote of 1,492, and the Republican State ticket averaged 474. The Democratic county ticket averaged 1,575, and the Republican 455. In the Congressional contest, Robert N. Page received 1,506, and John J. Parker 486. The small Republican vote for Mr. Parker came as a great surprise, as Union is Mr. Parker's native county and it was thought that he would poll an exceptionally large vote.

These returns indicate that about half of the registered voters in both parties voted. There are around 3,500 registered voters in this county—about 2,750 being Democrats and 750 Republicans.

Since last Wednesday Superior Court, now in session, has been taken up with the trial of Gus, Bill and Winfred Belk, charged with the murder of Ben Hunter in the early part of the Summer. On account of the prominence of the parties, much interest is being taken in the case. A jury was finally secured after exhausting two special venires aggregating 650 men. Messrs. McNeely and McNeely, Williams, Lemmond and Love, and Judge Osborne, of Charlotte, reprseent the defendants.

Not Sorry for Blunder.

"If my friends hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful life-saver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. 50c $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Robert R. Bellamy.

THE SUNDAY FIRES.

Blaze in Roof of Church—Aftermath of Livery Company Fire.

Aside from the narrow escape from a serious conflagration on the S. A. L. yards Sunday, shortly after 7 o'clock the same day the firemen were called out by an alarm from box 48, Fifth and Orange streets, on account of a blaze in the roof of St. Paul's Episcopal church. The fire was extinguished with chemicals and the damage is estimated at $25.

When dawn came Sunday morning it was found that the one remaining animal which was gotten out of the Orrell stables early in the morning was so badly burned that death was a matter of only a few days and it was killed. Alderman Bonitz, chairman of the Streets and Wharves committee, stated yesterday that the city's total loss, including the live stock, ten in number, and the harness, etc., would be about $2,500 with about $1,250 insurance. Several teams were hired yesterday morning and the city work is being carried on as before.

In the same building with the stables was a Chinese laundry, the proprietor of which had a narrow escape from his room on the second floor. Something over $200 which he had in a trunk was burned up and he also lost $1,600 in damage to his machinery and fixtures upon which he carried no insurance. Many patrons of the "washee-washee" who had not taken the trouble to get their laundry Saturday night, found themselves the loser when they called for their packages yesterday.

SERIOUS CHARGES PREFERRED.

Accused of Assault on Mother-in-Law and Non-Support of Child.

Z. T. Lumley, a well known white man, is in the county jail in default of bond pending hearing before Justice Harriss this morning at 10 o'clock on the charge of non-support of his child and for assault with an axe on his mother-in-law, Mrs. Rosa Vernon, who made the affidavit upon which the warrants were sworn out. It is stated that Mrs. Lumley is ill of typhoid fever at their home in Blunt's Alley, between Market and Princess and Seventh and Eighth streets, and that Mrs. Vernon was advised last Saturday by the attending physician to go nurse her daughter; that Saturday night the defendant came to the house in an intoxicated condition and after breaking the door down with an axe attempted to use the weapon on his mother-in-law. Warrants were sworn out for Lumley and he was arrested yesterday morning by Constable Savage. Being unable to give $200 bond Lumley was committed to jail to await hearing this morning. Shortly after noon Mrs. Vernon telephoned to the magistrate to know if her son-in-law was in jail, stating that she was afraid to return to her daughter's if he were enjoying his freedom.

PROPOSITION TO BUY LAND.

Alderman Bonitz May Urge Purchase of Property South of City.

It is understood that at the special meeting of the Board of Aldermen tonight, when the obstruction ordinance will be considered, that Alderman Fred Bonitz, chairman of the Streets and Wharves Committee, will ask his colleagues to consider a proposition to purchase for the city 600 acres of land on the river front just beyond Greenfield mill pond, which he thinks could be secured for $8,000 or $10,000. He says that if the property were owned by the city, stables could be erected thereon for the keep of the city teams, practically all the feed needed could be raised on the land and one portion could be used for the dumping of city refuse. The property is located about a mile from the city on the south side and, therefore, it is pointed out that the property is very desirably located for refuse matter, property for which will have to be purchased by the city sooner or later. He would have a mid-day feed station somewhere in the city, so the teams could be kept out all day. Mr. Bonitz does not know for certain that the property could be purchased, but thinks that the present owner, Mr. Boyd, of Hamlet, would be open to a proposition.

REV. T. A. SMOOT TO VIRGINIA

Now Seems Certain That Popular Wilmington Pastor Will Go to Norfolk—Rev. Plato Durham May Come Here.

Not only in Wilmington, but all over the State, there is the keenest interest tempered with regret in the appointments expected by the Virginia Conference now in session at Richmond because of the practical certainty that the announcements will contain the first authoritative news of the transfer of Rev. Thos. A. Smoot, from the pastorate of Grace M. E. Church, in this city, to that of the Epworth Church in Norfolk, Va.

A telegram to the Star at 12:30 o'clock this morning states that the Virginia appointments will not be read in Richmond until tomorrow, but that it is practically settled that Mr. Smoot will go to the Norfolk church. The Star has already spoken of the great blow that this will be to Methodism in the State and to Wilmington at large. None the less interesting is the rumor in the inside circles of the Western North Carolina Conference which meets today at Winston-Salem, that Rev. Plato Durham, the brilliant young divine, formerly of Charlotte, will succeed Mr. Smoot at Grace church. While all would regret that Mr. Smoot could not remain in the State and his fourth year at Grace, it is believed that none could be sent to Wilmington more pleasing to the congregation of Grace than Mr. Durham, who is easily one of the first men of his denomination in his Conference. However, the report as to Mr. Durham has yet reached only the range of probability according to best advices.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED

Some Wilmington People have Learned How to Get Rid of Both.

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers.

You can't separate them.

And you can't get rid of the backache until you cure the kidney ache.

If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong, healthy kidneys.

James Hansley, 309 N. Fifth St., Wilmington, N. C., says:

"For some time my back and kidneys troubled me, no doubt due to constant standing. I had dull, nagging backaches and a sharp pain across my loins. I could not stoop or lift without having twinges throughout my body. The kidney secretions contained sediment and were too frequent in passage. When I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box from Robert R. Bellamy's Drug Store and used them as directed. In a few days the backache and other annoyances ceased and have not returned since. I give this testimonial in the hope that some other sufferer from kidney trouble will be benefitted thereby."

Thursday, November 15th, 1910.

It is now announced that automobiles are to be reduced in price. Oh, you bacon!

It is said Col. Roosevelt wept at the grave of Napoleon. Probably the tears flowed as a premonition that he too was fated to have his Waterloo.

Fire in a Fort Worth warehouse destroyed 100 pianos. That fire will be instrumental in causing the paragraphers to make a note of this remarkable occurrence in a town that has been making a good deal of noise of late.

John W. Kerr, who will be the Democratic Senator from Indiana, refuses to "shave off those darn whiskers." Probably he will make up his mind to do so when he goes to Washington and sees Marion Butler and his whiskers in the lobby.

Says a contemporary, still wondering at the Democratic landslide: "Roosevelt persists in refusing to speak." Well, give the man time to reflect. He now knows what it is to speak without thinking and no doubt he is keeping quiet so he wont add any new mistakes to the stock he acquired during the campaign.

The Raleigh News and Observer remarks: "Four women have been elected to the Legislature from Colorado—three of them are Democrats and one a Republican. Why cannot women make laws to govern men as well as men make laws to govern women." If women have their way, do men govern them? If men don't have their way, don't women govern them? Can't women rule men without any law? Women don't every have any rule by which they make the men "walk a chalk line."

One of the lessons to be learned by Republican leaders in North Carolina is that when they wish to make an issue they must make it squarely and not place a subterfuge in their platform under the idea that North Carolina voters haven't got sense enough to detect deception. The leaders of the Republican party in North Carolina are responsible for making their party stand for trickery, so one way to help make it respectable is to find the man or the men responsible for the trickery and give them the grand bounce. A party's character is what its leaders make it.

The sudden death of Senator Alexander Stephens Clay, of Georgia, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, has caused deep regret throughout the South. He died at a sanitarium in Atlanta and his death was a surprise as his condition was not regarded as serious. The Senator was 57 years old and had served in the United States Senate continuously for 14 years. He was serving his third term, having succeeded Senator John B. Gordon in1896. Senator Clay was a man of most irreproachable character and unswerving integrity and possessed ability that gave him prominence in the Senate.. He was a member of several Senatorial committees and was one of the Senate's hardest workers. Few men in public life were so rigidly honest and more universally esteemed as the lamented Georgia Senator. Georgia may send a more brilliant man to succeed him but she cannot choose a United States Senator with all the elements so mixed in him that he will be the superior of Senator Clay. He was an honor to Georgia and to the South.

LOWER PRICES PREDICTED.

The Hon. James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture, tells the Washington Post that in his opinion "meat prices soon should drop." There is room for a considerable drop and we are sure consumers will hope Secretary Wilson is a true prophet. They couldn't very well go any higher, or else meat would get out of reach of the average individual and the demand would be very largely cut down because of prohibitive prices. There are sometimes when prices reach such a limit that they bring about stagnation if not suffering.

Secretary Wilson's prophecy is on a line with the statement of Charles W. Armour, at Kansas City last Friday, when that one of the great packers declared that "the apex in the cost of living has been passed." The Secretary of Agriculture, however, makes the reservation that his view of the matter holds only if combines shall not be formed to maintain prices artificially. We fear those combines already exist, and as a matter of fact, we are pretty sure of it, for a case is now pending against the Beef Trust before Judge Landis at Chicago. However, the statement of a prominent member of the Armour Packing interests is rather reassuring, for he probably knows what he is talking about because he is on a position to see what is coming.

Secretary Wilson in an interview in the Post of last Sunday said: "We have had bumper crops, and meat prices should come down; that is, if no combine is formed among the dealers. My views apply to all kinds of meat. The crops have been such that a falling in price should be the inevitable result. The only thing that can defeat this will be that too great a toll is taken after the products leave the hands of the farmer and before they reach the consumers."

Logically, meat prices as well as the price of food supplies should fall, because the country has harvested the greater corn, wheat and other grain crops in its history. This means that there will be more and cheaper grain to feed cattle and hogs, while flour is bound to be cheaper because of a bountiful wheat crop. The fact is the Chicago prices for wheat and corn are considerably less than they were a year ago. December wheat in 1909 was $1.15 per bushel compared with 97 1-4 cents for December 1909. December oats are quoted at 31 1-2 compared with 40 cents in December 1909.

In addition to the big grain crops and consequent lowering of prices it is said long prevailing high prices for cattle and hogs have caused the Western farmers to go into the raising of stock on a much larger scale, so that while there will be more feed for cattle and hogs there will be more stock to supply the demand. Lower prices are also predicated on the fact that in Argentina and Russia there have been great grain yields, so that there will be less foreign demand for our grain. This will leave more of it in the United States to relieve the burden of the consumers.

Altogether, it is concluded that nothing can prevent the easing of prices in the long run, as it is believed that the supply of grain this year is so great as to make the lower movement of prices irrestible. The only thing to be feared is the middleman and the combines, great factors to be reckoned with. The tariff still makes it possible for the combines to do business in spite of the law of supply and demand.

NAGGING AT BRYAN.

Some anti-Bryan Democratic newspapers are going out of their way to thank the Hon. William J. Bryan for contributing to recent Democratic success "by not actively participating in the campaign." The fact is, Mr. Bryan did effective campaigning in several States, and while the Nebraskan in times past has advocated measures which probably contributed to the defeat of the Democratic party, we can see no good in the midst of victory to hark back to the Nebraskan Colonel. Especially is this true when Democratic papers of a certain class did as much harm to the Democratic cause as Bryan by means of their ill-advised assaults on their party nominee and platforms at a time when it aided the enemy in defeating Democracy. Col. Bryan is now doing nothing to injure his party and it is time to let him alone.

The trouble with some editors is that they want Col. Bryan to agree to their standards of Democracy while they reject his. It is very frequently the case that the standards set up by some of our newspaper friends wouldn't cut any more ice than some of Bryan's unfortunate "paramount issues." A serious drawback to the party is that the average Democrat is a law unto himself and obeys his own law. In the recent election Col. Bryan acted in State matters to suit himself, like anti-Bryan Democrats did in the National campaigns when he tried to win a victory for Democracy but was prevented by many of his present day critics. As Col. Bryan and most of his critics appear to be in the same boat of inconsistency, they will please not rock the boat.

LAND VALUES.

For several years the Star at different times has contended that money could not be invested with more certainty of gain than in North Carolina lands. We especially had in view the lands in eastern North Carolina and it cannot fail to be noticed that time is proving our claims as to the possibilities of our lands as to production with the consequent verification of their value. We have all along been confident that the valuable lands of eastern North Carolina would be recognized and that they would be in great demand sooner or later. Splendid farming results in all the counties have attracted attention to these lands and the good prices at which they are selling, in comparison with the prices several years ago, bears out the Star's predictions that attention would be attracted to this fine part of North Carolina when its resources became known.

The Star's Whiteville correspondence frequently mentions deals in fine Columbus county lands at astonishing prices compared with the prices not so long ago, and similar tidings come from other counties. The Rowland Sun, published at Rowland, Robeson county, says:

"A man that has a good farm in this day of high priced cotton has something the value of which is hard to estimate. The increase in land values during the past few years has been something enormous, and there seems to be no let-up. A farm some miles west of Rowland was bought ten years ago for $1,800; the same farm was sold last week for $18,000. Two miles west of Dillon some days ago a farm of 637 acres was sold for $75,000. Right here around Rowland farming land could not be bought for less than $100 per acre, and it's worth it. Land that will produce two bales of cotton per acre would soon pay for itself, even at that price. We doubt not that land on which Rowland is situated could have been purchased 25 years ago at five dollars an acre. Land in some places in the State has been as cheap as fifty cents an acre, but that was in the past. It will never be cheap again."

Facts like those from our esteemed Rowland contemporary speak for themselves. It has come to pass that a man possessing a good farm has a little fortune, and it is difficult to state just exactly what he is worth. If he purchased his lands when they were low in price he has made a big investment. In Scotland county, one of the finest sections in the Southern States, good farm lands are now selling at from $100 to $150 an acre on an average. The increase in farm values there has been so astonishing that some people declare that farm lands are too high. As to lands which sell at the prices named, the Laurinburg Exchange says:

"We do not think this is too high, and we further do not think that this is as high as they are going. Five or six years ago a farm of about 75 acres was offered for sale at $75 per acre. About 50 acres were in cultivation, the balance in woodland. A very prominent man remarked to us that this was entirely too high; that farm lands were too high. In fact, it was with much difficulty that a purchaser was found at the price. Today this same land could not be bought for $150. The owner will not consider that price. And why should he? He has averaged from 33 to 28 per cent. on the investment and one-third of it has not been touched. He is making from 11 to 14 per cent. on it at a valuation of $150 and the one-third is still untouched. Pretty good investment, it seems to us. Farm lands in Scotland county at the prices at which they are now selling offer excellent investments, and they can still stand a considerable raise."

We long ago anticipated the increase in land values and boosted North Carolina lands as an investment. The Exchange proves that even at the increased prices, lands constitute a fine investment for their productiveness alone and there are hundreds of thousands of acres of fine lands yet to be developed and which will be just as valuable as the best in the country. Lands at reasonable prices are bound to be a good investment, for this country is going forward and not backward.

What is a Democrat? They are It.

See all of them first but settle in Wilmington. It won't do any harm to look over the others first if you will only see Wilmington last. See Wilmington and settle.

More good roads and drainage will furnish enough for eastern North Carolina to do during the next half century. Industrial progress will follow good roads and drainage.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Democratic pluralities look almost as bloated as census figures.—Washington Post.

Mr. Butler was much in evidence before the election but he has not been heard of since.—Durham Herald.

Champ Clark has a right to ride that Missouri mule down Pennsylvania avenue. The Democrats will have fifty-two majority in the Missouri Legislature. That's the answer it made to the Republican challenge, "Show me."—Raleigh News and Observer.

It is said that President Taft is contemplating an early call of the new Congress with the view of embarrassing the Democratic House by putting the tariff problem right up to them without delay. Don't believe the Democratic House would be embarrassed one bit. But the President could hardly be expected to eat his own words of commendation for the present tariff.—Greensboro Telegram.

The Democrats are coming, Father Abraham. The Maxton Scottish Chief notes that on election day the stork brought a young Democrat to the home of Mr. A. J. Cottingham, making him the father of twenty-one children and the grandfather of a multitude which the Chief says it has not numbered. A few such Democratic families in Pennsylvania would even make that commonwealth Democratic.—Raleigh News and Observer.

General Carr having been mentioned by several of the State papers as a possible candidate for speaker of the next house of representatives, the Herald is in position to state authoritatively that under no circumstances will General Carr consider the use of his name in connection with the speakership and he is desirous that his friends throughout the State will understand that his decision is irrevocable and absolute.—Durham Herald.

A few years ago a Southern Federal judge—in Alabama, we believe—who loved a sensation and the lime-light, created a stir by a charge to the jury on the subject of peonage, creating the impression that many negroes in the South were still virtually held in slavery. The result was that Roosevelt's super-serviceable officials harried the South and magazine writers made much of the "horrible peonage" in the South. Some other Federal judges imitated the pioneer judicial sensationalist and we have had a multitude of peonage cases all brought by reason of love of doing something out of the common or from ignorance. Nearly all of the men prosecuted—sometimes Federal spies made it persecution—were acquitted—and the Wilmington Star notes that Judge Connor on Friday threw such a case out of the Federal court. Peonage is a crime and should be ended and guilty parties punished, but the cases are almost as scarce as hen's teeth and the big talk of it was born of love of sensation and has injured the South's good reputation. Everybody reads of how a judge delivers a sensational peonage charge. Few people ever hear about the trumped-up cases being thrown out of court, and therefore the injury to the South remains.—Raleigh News and Observer.

In Sunday's Wilmington Star is printed the detailed report of the engineer of the pathfinding tour of the Charlotte-to-Wilmington highway. It tells of the trip, mile by mile, and the incidents thereof. But in summing up, in part, the report says: "The entire road through Anson and Union counties, with the exception of short improved sections near Wadesboro and near Monroe, is in very bad shape in respect to grades and in wet weather is nearly impassable at hills owing to the fact that the roads are built almost entirely of clay. The rock macadam roads of Mecklenburg county are substantially built but not as smoothly finished as macadam in New Hanover. The section traversed between Maxton and Charlotte needs new surfacing. The large number of railroad crossing along the route are objectionable, but many of these can be eliminated by building short stretches of new roads along one side of the railroad. New and more permanent bridges are needed at many points and good fills should be made at their approaches and also through the numerous shallow swamps on the eastern portion of the route." Each township and each county taking the work in hand, the defects should be soon remedied and a fine highway connected up between Charlotte and Wilmington. What is needed on this job is another R. O. Alexander.—Charlotte Chronicle.

WHITEVILLE NEWS NOTES.

Paving Materials—Station Sold—Highway—Other News Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Nov. 14.—Two parties from Philadelphia were in town Saturday investigating the contract for paving our streets. The Mayor and Aldermen decided to meet on the 22nd inst. to take into consideration the matter, when a final decision will be made. Some of the municipal officers are in favor of the Beech Island gravel, and others think it best to put down macadam or asphalt. The majority of our citizens want a permanent pavement, and are anxious to see work begin.

Last Saturday the German coach stallion was sold at auction and was bid off by E. S. Lewis for $325. This animal was bought by a company that agreed to pay $3,200 for same. It was claimed that the horse was only worth $1,100 at the outside, and the parties made a misrepresentation when they stated that it was imported. The livery bill amounts to $500, and the sale of the stallion does not even pay this. There is a suit now pending by the parties who sold the horse to recover balance of purchase money.

The horse and mule market is now in full blast in Whiteville, and our town has developed into one of the leading stock markets in Eastern Carolina.

Mr. J. E. Dicks, president of the Bank of Fair Bluff, is out in a card advocating the location of that Wilmington-Charlotte Highway via his town. Mr. Dicks gives the distances between the different projected points and shows that not only a better but nearer and more direct route can be had by going the Fair Bluff road and leaving Lumberton out. The enterprising people of Fair Bluff are determined on bending their every effort to capture this road.

Some five years ago Mr. James Struthers, a young farmer from Grists in Columbus county, went to Porto Rico, where he embarked in the business of growing oranges, pines and grape fruit. He bought land cheap, and has met with great success in his venture. He writes back that there is big money in fruit growing in Porto Rico, and advises his friends to come on and try it.

A gentleman in close touch with our next State Senator from this district, Hon. J. A. Brown, says he will make an effort to put a stop to the pernicious practice of using money to control elections, and will introduce and press for passage a bill to make it a misdemeanor to buy, offer to buy, or accept any valuable consideration in an election in this State. Senator Brown very wisely contends that the use of money in elections practically disfranchises a poor man from aspiring for public office, and it is a dangerous practice, that should be discontinued. He does not expect, of course, to entirely eliminate the evil, but can in a measure suppress it.

Dr. H. B. Maxwell, who first started the crusade against the hoowkorm in Columbus county, last week returned from a trip out in the country, and says it is astounding the number of people thus afflicted. He is treating a great many and says the improvement in the condition of patients is almost magical after undergoing treatment. For awhile persons seemed to think it a reeflction to be accused of having hookworms, but that foolish idea is being fast abandoned. Dr. Maxwell says that 60 per cent. or more of the young people he has examined have hookworm and some are in a bad way.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. It's positively guaranteed for stomach, liver or kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50c at Robert R. Bellamy's.

CASES BEFORE THE RECORDER

Number of Cases Were Investigated Yesterday Morning—William Moore, Colored, Heavily Fined—Other Cases.

The Recorder had a large number of defendants before him for hearing yesterday morning as the result of the activities of the police since Saturday. In the case against William H. Moore, the colored news dealer, tried last week and found guilty of receiving stolen goods knowing them to have been stolen, the Recorder ordered that the defendant pay a fine of $50 and costs. Had it not been for the previous good character of the defendant a road sentence would very probably have been imposed.

A case against R. L. Rouse, formerly a member of the police force, charged with non-support of his children, was continued until Thursday. The ex-officer was indicted by his wife for failure to provide for his little ones. The prosecution will be represented by C. D. Weeks, Esq., while L. Clayton Grant, Esq., will appear for the defendant.

Aex. Hall, colored, was fined $10 and costs for carrying a concealed weapon. He stated in court that he had the pistol at a shop for repairs and was carrying it home when arrested. A case against Fannie Howie, a white woman of the underworld, charged with larceny of $7 from J. B. Allen, a white man, was continued on account of the absence of the prosecutor. Allen was fined $10 for his failure to appear in court and a capias was issued for him. Stella Dewsey, another denizen of the underworld, was fined $10 and costs for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. William Moore, colored, was before the Recorder to answer the charge of affray. He had an ugly wound in the back of his head which is alleged to have been made by the other party to the difficulty. Moore was let off upon payment of costs. Officers are making an effort to locate the other party.

Walter Shaw, colored, was arrested Sunday night on a warrant sworn out some time ago charging him with attempt to commit a felony, having been found in the home of George Benson, a white man, on the 10th of July last. Shaw was in court yesterday morning, but the trial was continued on account of the absence of Mr. Benson. The negro was committed to jail.

ARREST AND BAIL ACTION.

Mr. W. M. Hurst Institutes Proceedings Against Mr. T. P. Sykes.

Mr. Thomas P. Sykes, an aged and well known citizen of this city, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox under authority of arrest and bail proceedings instituted in Superior Court by Mr. W. M. Hurst, also a well known citizen of Wilmington. Mr. Sykes was taken to the Sheriff's office and a short time later gave bond in the sum of $5,000 and was released. The plaintiff sues the defendant for a total of $35,000 for the alleged seduction of his daughter, Miss Isabelle, who was then only 16 years old, it is averred. It is alleged in the complaint that the defendant was a frequent visitor at the Hurst home, No. 1512 Market street, where he was received as a friend of the family and a near neighbor and it is charged that he took advantage of this friendship and the absence from home of the plaintiff in the action. Mr. Sykes emphatically denies the charge and it is understood that he says that a few days ago he was approached to affect a compromise for $500, which he absolutely refused to consider. Rountree & Carr and Hon. John D. Bellamy appear for the plaintiff, while A. G. Ricaud, Esq., has been retained by the defendant.

MR. W. H. BIDDLE ASSIGNS,

Mr. Chas. C. Loughlin is Named as Trustee and Takes Charge.

Mr. Wm. H. Biddle, the well known grocer at 609 Castle street, made an assignment yesterday morning, naming Chas. C. Loughlin, Esq., as trustee, who is directed to take charge of the business, sell same at private or public sale and after paying the necessary expenses distribute the balance among the creditors pro rata. The instrument filed for record sets forth that Mr. Biddle is indebted to various parties and unable to meet the demands made upon him and therefore in order to secure an equitable distribution of his property among his creditors makes the deed of assignment. Mr. Biddle is well known in the city and county, and was formerly Register of Deeds.

From Greece With His Bride.

James P. Xanthos, a well known confectioner on South Front street, arrived yesterday from his native country, Greece, whither he went on a visit January 1st, of this year, and where on September 25th he was married. His bride accompanied him to this country and yesterday they were the recipients of many happy congratulations from his friends of the Greek colony and many Americans, who have learned to appreciate his fine qualities and his sterling character.

WHY SALVES FAIL TO CURE ECZEMA.

Scientists are now agreed that the eczema germs are lodged not in the outer skin or epidermis, but in the inner skin. Hence, a penetrating liquid is required, not an outward salve that clogs the pores.

We recommend to all eczema patients the standard prescription Oil of Wintergreen as compounded in liquid form known as D. D. D. Prescription. A trial bottle of this D. D. D. Prescription, at only 25 cents, will instantly relieve the itch. We have sold and recommended this remedy for years, and know of wonderful cures from its use. We recommend it to our patrons.

A RIVER TRIP FOR DELEGATES

Those Who Attend Meeting of North Carolina Drainage Association —Secretary Hilles Grants Seminole—Features.

One of the most enjoyable features arranged for entertaining delegates to the convention of the North Carolina Drainage Association, which convenes here on next Tuesday, will be a trip down the Cape Fear river on the revenue cuter Seminole, which has been granted the committee, with Mr. W E. Springer, chairman, by Assistant Secretary Hilles, of the Treasury Department, and orders have been received to that effect by Capt. R. O. Crisp, the commanding officer.

The river trip has been arranged for Wednesday morning. Capt. Crisp stated yesterday that the delegates will be entertained on the cutter provided the vessel is not called out on urgent business. The cutter was asked for by the committee, the request being endorsed by Collector of Customs B. F. Keith, who is also vice-president of the Drainage Association.

Letters were received yesterday from Dr. Hyde Pratt, the secretary, and President J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn, stating that there will be in attendance at the convention between 400 and 500 delegates. It is expected that there will be a large number present, besides the members of the Association, who are interested in drainage projects. The committees have been very active in making arrangements and it promises to be the best convention of its kind ever held in North Carolina. As will be recalled a number of distinguished speakers will be present, among whom will be Congressman John H. Small and Congressman H. L. Godwin. Letters are being received by the committee daily from delegates, in response to invitations sent out, stating that they will attend.

Reduced rates have been granted by railroads from points throughout the State, applying as follows: On Atlantic Coast Line, Seaboard, Durham & Southern, Norfolk & Southern, and Southern Railway. The dates of sale of tickets will be November 21st and 22nd, limited to midnight of November 25th.

NEW METHOD ADOPTED.

Just Say "Western Union" or "Telegram" to the Hello Girl.

Beginning today, November 15th, the "Hello" girl will depart from the usual custom of asking for the number when the office of the Western Union Telegraph Company is desired, and will give that office to any one who may call for it, either by the number, "Western Union' or "Telegram."

The new method of calling the Western Union office by name "Telegram" is established for the convenience of the public, as a means of saving time. It will not only apply to the local exchange of the Southern Bell Co., but this method will go into effect today in all of the exchanges of the Bell Company. This convenience will be fully appreciated by the traveling man who visits many points and who otherwise, would be required to look up the number in the telephone directory.

At the present time, any subscriber of the Bell Telephone Co. can call the office of the Western Union Telegraph Co. and give a mesage, having it charged to him and the bill rendered on the first of the following month. Likewise, telegrams will be accepted having the telephone number as the only local address and delivered to the person for whom it is intended, by telephone.

These changes, as well as the recently adopted plan of sending a "night Letter" of fifty words for the price a day message of ten words, bespeak the advantage to the public, of the recent merger of the telephone and telegraph interests.

DEATH OF MR. J. J. CANADY.

Passed Away at Home of Daughter on Greenville Sound.

Friends learned with regret of the death of Mr. J. J. Canady, which occurred at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Rogers, on Greenville Sound, where he had made his home for some time. Mr. Canady had been in ill health for two years but his condition was not regarded as serious until a few days ago.

The body was brought to the city yesterday morning and taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. T. Brown, No. 907 South Fifth street, whence the funeral services will be held at 330 o'clock this afternoon, conducted by Elder W. A. Simpkins, of the Primitive Baptist church, of Raleigh.

Mr. Canady was in the 72nd year of his age and is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mesdames Rogers and Brown; two brothers, Mr. J. F. Canady, of Swansboro, and Mr. W. A. Canady, of Sneed's Ferry, Onslow County, and one half brother, Mr. W. A. Canady, foreman of the Sixth and Castle street fire company. Mr. Canady was a Confederate Veteran having served throughout the Civil War. The bereaved have the tenderest sympathy of a great many friends.

He was a member of Cape Fear Camp, No. 254, U. C. V., and the members of the camp are called to meet at the residence at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon to attend the funeral services.

Will Be Married Wednesday Night.

License was issued yesterday for the marriage of Mr. Daniel L. Padrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Padrick, of Greenville Sound, and Miss Nellie Spooner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Spooner, East Wilmington. The event will be celebrated tomorrow evening at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride-elect with Rev. C. K. Rogers officiating. Many friends will extend felicitations and best wishes in advance.

SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT IS MADE

Chase Gouverneur Aeroplane Satisfactorily Demonstrated at Wrightsville Beach Yesterday Afternoon—Second in State.

The first flight in North Carolina of a heavier-than-air machine since the now-famous Wright Brothers concluded their successful experiments at Kitty Hawk, N. C., in 1907, was made yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at Wrightsville Beach by Mr. H. M. Chase in an aeroplane which he and Mr. M. F. H. Gouverneur have been building for the past several months at Shell Island, about two miles below the Hotel Tarrymore.

The machine is of an entirely new type from any of those heretofore built and is the invention of Messrs. Chase and Gouverneur, who have been assisted in the construction by Mr. John L. Grafflin, machanician, and Mr. Hodges, an expert woodworker. It is equipped with a 40 horse power gasolene engine and the flights yesterday afternoon by Mr. Chase, while of no great distance or altitude, are said to have demonstrated fully the practicability of the invention. Long flights will not be attempted until the driver has fully acquainted himself with the macaine and has gained by experience the requisite poise and equilibrium while at the wheel. The flight was witnessed only by the gentlemen interested in the invention but later, it is understood, a public exhibition will be given. The machine was taken out of the shops yesterday morning and when the tide had receded sufficiently, the aeroplane was run along the beach for some distance until it gradually rose in flight to a height of about five feet and continued for some little distance, just enough, of course, to demonstrate its ability to fly. It is the first flight in North Carolina of an aeroplane since the experiments of the Wright Brothers and the first doubtless of a machine owned and built in North Carolina and perhaps in the South.

The inventors and owners are extremely modest in speaking of their achievement but later it is hoped to give a more detailed description of the new machine and its achievements, the utmost secrecy having been maintained until now as to its construction and accomplishments.

COL. HOLTZ SUNDAY NIGHT.

Interesting Talk on Salvation Army at St. Andrew's Church.

At St. Andrew's Presbyterian church Sunday evening Col. Richard E. Holtz, of Philadelphia, in command of the Salvation Army in the Atlantic Coast province, spoke on the work of the Salvation Army and was heard with much pleasure by a large congregation.

Col. Holtz has been actively identified with the work for over 20 years and spoke enthusiastically of what is being accomplished by this great religious organization throughout the United States and many other countries. The Salvation Army, which was founded by General Booth some forty-odd years ago, he stated, now has 20,000 workers and is represented in 44 Nations of the world. Col. Holtz related in detail the great good wrought by the organization and referred particularly to the work in the slums of the big cities, where they have bettered conditions to a marvellous degree. He spoke at Brooklyn Baptist church Sunday morning on "Transformations," on a similar line as in the evening and was heard with much interest at each service.

RUMOR WAS NOT CORRECT.

Godwin Carried His Own Precinct but Township Went Republican.

Apropos the rumor here and at other places that Congressman H. L. Godwin did not carry his own precinct, which statement has given the Republicans some consolation, the following from a letter from Mr. Godwin to a political friend in this city will be of interest:

"I note from the press that it has been rumored that Mr. Meares carried my precinct. This is not true. The precinct in which I live went Democratic by 12 maojrity, but the entire township, including all the rural sections, went Republican by 27 majority. This is nothing personal against me as it is a Republican township of long standing; it is along the line with Sampson and includes a large rural section which is inhabited by Republicans almost to a man."

Winner Not Yet Located.

Sheriff S. P. Cowan and his deputies think that M. L. Winner, for whom the Sheriff has been searching for the past several days, has gone to another State, efforts to locate him in this county having proved futile. Last week Sheriff Cowan made a trip to the lower part of the county and again Saturday night went to the home of Winner near Carolina Beach, but as yet has received no information regarding the whereabouts of the fugitive from justice. Winner, it will be recalled, was convicted some months ago of selling whiskey and sentenced to six months on the county roads. He appealed to the Supreme Court and pending an opinion from the higher tribunal was released on $300 bond. The Supreme Court affirmed the decision of the lower court and Sheriff Cowan has been searching for Winner ever since the papers were received here. Friends of Winner regret that he did not give himself up, for he has ruined any chance he might have had to secure consideration of his case by the Governor.

TRIAL OF BIG DAMAGE CASE

Action Brought by Deputy Marshal C. O. Knox Against Cape Fear Lumber Co., for $50,000, Being Heard Second Time.

After a recess from Friday afternoon, when the criminal side of the docket was wound up, United States Court reconvened at 11 o'clock yesterday morning with Judge H. G. Connor presiding, and the remainder of the term will be given over to civil issues. There are a number of important cases on the civil calendar.

The case of United States Deputy Marshal C. O. Knox against the Cape Fear Lumber Company, an action for damages aggregating $50,000, was called yesterday and is now being tried. The jury was secured in less than an hour as follows: Meyer Russ, J. J. Rackley, R. J. Haywood, Allen Gilbert, Blake Warren, A. H. McCulloch, R. A. Montgomery, M. G. Tiencken, B. F. Dockery, Alfred Hadley, T. J. Wilson and W. P. McGlaughon.

The suit grows out of the prosecution of Mr. Knox in the State courts by the lumber company and there are two causes of action, damages in the sum of $25,000 being asked in each. Malicious prosecution is the first cause of action and malicious abuse of legal process is the second. The complaint sets out that on February 24th, 1908, the Cape Fear Lumber Company sued out a claim and delivery process against Mr. Knox for the ownership of certain logs claimed by the company and which had been raised from the bottom of Smith's Creek by the plaintiff Knox; that the plaintiff Knox contended that if any of the logs so raised from the creek belonged to the lumber company he should be reimbursed for the amount expended in having them raised. The case was tried before Recorder John J. Furlong, who was then a justice of the peace, and judgment given in favor of the lumber company. Mr. Knox took an appeal to Superior Court but the same was not perfected. The plaintiff was then indicted for receiving logs knowing them to have been stolen, given hearing before Mr. Furlong and bound over to Superior Court, where he was found not guilty of the charge. The plaintiff Knox alleges that the lumber company then seized the logs. For damage to his character on account of false arrest the plaintiff asks for $25,000, and an additional $25,000 is asked for malicious abuse of legal process.

The case was heard at the last term of court resulting in a mistrial, 11 of the jurors being in favor of awarding damages and one holding out against giving verdict for the plaintiff.

After the reading of the pleadings the plaintiff was called to the stand. He had not proceeded far with his testimony, however, when Mr. Furlong was called to testify regarding the cases in his court at the time Mr. Knox was being prosecuted by the lumber company. The lumber company's contention is that if there were malicious prosecution of Mr. Knox that it was wholly unauthorized by the company. It was put in evidence yesterday that Mr. J. A. Arringdale had advised the proceedings against Mr. Knox and that the lumber company was represented at the hearings by J. O. Carr, Esq., who was also called as a witness yesterday. Mr. Arringdale was called to the stand by the plaintiff's counsel and testified, in reply to questions, that he was vice president and general manager of the Cape Fear Lumber Company at the time of the proceedings against Mr. Knox and that had charge of the management of the business, the president living in New York City.

Mr. Knox was recalled to the stand in the afternoon and had not completed his testimony when court took a recess until today. The plaintiff is represented by Herbert McClammy, Esq., and Hon. John D. Bellamy, while Meares & Ruark appear for the defendant company. The testimony in the case is being taken down by Mr. Meares Harriss, the expert court stenographer.

STEAMER OFF SHOALS.

Revenue Cutter Returns to Port—Name of Vessel Unknown.

The revenue cutter Seminole returned to port yesterday morning from Cape Lookout, where she received a wireless message while on her way to Cape Hatteras, stating that the steamer reported ashore on Diamond Shoals Saturday night, had floated and proceeded North.

The cutter was responding to the call of the distressed vessel, which went on the shoals late Saturday evening and was reported from Creel's Life Saving Station in need of assistance. The wireless message received by the Seminole just barely stated the facts related above without giving the name of the vessel. It was understood from an Associated Press dispatch late Saturday night that the crew of the life saving station went to the steamer. The cutter received the wireless message Sunday at noon.

CONVALESCENTS.

After a long wasting illness, convalescents require nourishing food that will not overtax the digestive functions—and in the way of a strength-restoring and vitality-making tonic, we know of nothing that equals Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic (without oil).

Vinol creates an appetite, reestablishes good digestion and helps the daily food to make rich blood, form flesh, strong muscles and impart new life and vitality to every organ in the body. We ask those who need a strength and flesh building tonic restorative to call at our store and get a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that if it does not help them we will refund their money without question. SERIOUS FIRE AVERTED.

Cotton on Seaboard Air Line Platform Burned Sunday Afternoon.

Another serious fire on the Seaboard Air Line yards in this city was narrowly averted early Sunday afternoon when a number of bales of cotton on one of the platforms of the company were discovered to be on fire and burning rapidly. But for the timely arrival of the captain and crew of the steamer Ferndene, lying at the Wilmington Compress and Warehouse Co.'s wharves, who turned out with their buckets and other fire fighting paraphernalia from aboard their ship, with the wind of its prevailing direction and velocity, it is almost ceratin that the new warehouses on the wharves, would have been burned. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been a wood burning engine used at a pumping station only a short distance away and of which there has been frequent complaint. Acting upon the latest of these complaints, Chief Schnibben, of the Fire Department, yesterday required that the smokestack of the engine be provided at once with a spark arrestor and that the pipe be extended until a gasolene engine which has been ordered has arrived. Those who saw the scene of the threatened conflagration were loud in their praise of the splendid work done by the captain and crew of the steamer Ferndene whom they say Wilminton is due to the fact that there was not another Sunday conflagration.

As it is, about 13 bales of the cotton are badly damaged. A 'phone message was sent to the Fourth street engine station and the firemen responded hurriedly to the call but the steamer's crew is said to have already had the fire under control. It is hoped that the experiment Sunday will serve to make the inspection now being made by the Fire Department as effective as can be.

MISS MARY BRIDGERS.

When men, in the heat of battle die, we call them heroes. When men devote large amounts of money (as they grow old and the enjoyments of making and hoarding wealth relaxes) to charitable purposes, we call them benefactors, but when a young woman with beauty, grace and charms and with wealth devotes all, on the altar of principle, to others, especially the poor, and when that principle demands that she "practise what she preaches" and willingly, contrary to the hue and cry, "no doctor!" gives her life to show her principles, I "take off my shoes from off my feet" in her presence, for where she lies is "holy ground." No one ever died in this State and few, anywhere, that demand of me greater admiration. Her charming personality gave pleasure to any who just passed by her and her principles, like adamant, were as firm as Gibraltar. I here say in Wolff's words to Sir John Moore,

"Carve not a line, raise not a stone.
"But leave her alone in her glory!"

MRS. O. L. JAMES DEAD.

Passed Away at Her Home in Pelham, Ga., Last Evening.

Many friends in this city will be pained and saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. O. L. James, formerly Miss Eva Murphy, of this city, which occurred at her home in Pelham, Ga., last evening at 7 o'clock, after an illness of about a year. Her mother, Mrs. Sarah Murphy, of this city, was called to her bedside a few days ago and was with her when the end came.

Mrs. James was married in this city October 9th, 1907, and she and her husband left immediately for Pelham, Ga., where they have since resided. The little one which blessed the union died some months ago and was brought to this city for burial. Mrs. James was about 25 years old and besides her husband and mother is survived by four brothers and four sisters, as follows: Messrs. Moseley, Henry, William and Garland Murphy, Mr. E. L. Fonveille, Misses Sallie, Mary Beattie and Katie Murphy, all of this city, who will have the tenderest sympathy of a great many friends in their sore bereavement. Mrs. James was for years a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in this city and was a most estimable young woman, held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. The body will be brought to this city and the funeral will be held at an hour to be announced later.

CARS IN COLLISION.

Accident Last Night at Ninth and Princess—No One Hurt.

The beach car which left the junction at 11 o'clock last night, bound east, in charge of Motorman C. E. Long and well filled with theatre patrons returning from the attraction at the Academy of Music, was side swiped by City Car No. 20, in charge of Motorman E. W. Hall and Conductor J. R. Milliken when it reached Ninth and Princess streets turn-out a few minutes later. The beach car was just passing out of the city line when the belt line car swung around the curve and struck the larger car almost amidships. One glass out of the beach car was smashed, the fender of the city car was bent and other slight damage was done, but no one was injured beyond sever nervous shocks experienced by several. Motorman Hall stated that the track was wet and the brakes would not hold the city car as he swung around the curve.

AMUSEMENTS

Academy. Bijou. Joyland. Palace.

The Academy of Music was crowded last night for the presentation of "A Man's World," by Miss Mary Mannering and her excellent supporting company. The production was splendidly received and in the opinion of many theatre-goers, no better acting has been seen here this season.

Miss Mannering came in for especial high praise, the new vehicle giving her fine opportunity to display her great ability and talent as an actress. Mr. Alphonz Ethier, as Malcom Gaskill, a journalist; Mr. Charles Wyngate, as Fritz Bahn, a violinist, and Miss Helen Ormsbee, as Clara Oaks, a painter of miniatures, were splendid, and the other members of the cast were also good. Mark Short, as Kiddie, a boy, was very clever indeed and gives promise of becoming a great actor. Other members of the cast, all of whom did splendid work in their respective roles, were Miss Ann Crewe as Leonie Brune, a singer; Mr. Arthur Bethelet, as Wells Trevor, a dramatist, and Claus Bogel, as Emile Grimsaux.

Clyde Fitch's Great Success.

Seats for Clyde Fitch's greatest comedy success, "Girls," will go on sale at Plummer's Wednesday morning and the indications are for capacity business.

"Girls" is a delightful, entertaining and amusing story and one that holds absorbing interest throughout.

The cast is composed of metropolitan players and the production is complete down to the smallest detail.

The story in brief deals with three girls out of work who have taken an oath renouncing the society of men. With this in view they rent a studio in a big city and seek employment. The first act shows their studio and living apartment combined, and the girls about to retire for the night, when suddenly a man breaks in while escaping an angry husband in the same apartment house. The girls are horror stricken, more so when the intruder refuses to leave and announces his intention of remaining, but finally disappears, giving them only a faint trace as to his identity. Later one of the girls gets a position on the stage and the other two in a law office, there to find their late unwelcome visitor a partner in the firm. Violet, the younger of the girls, takes a liking to Loot, the woman-hating law clerk in the office. Pamela, the elder girl, is still prim and this leads to the discharge of both. Kate's engagement to her manager is the last straw. Pamela is horrified; Violet smiles. Soon Loot is veritably dragged into Violet's presence by an ingenious, but natural circumstance of business, they part an engaged couple. That is the second straw. Finally Pamela accepts Holt, the man she knew as the midnight intruder.

The cast is composed of metropolitan players and the production is complete down to the smallest detail.

The Spielgartenfest.

Those who are taking part in the Spielgartenfest are fairly saturated with the work and are progressing very satisfactorily in every way. The talent is that of "Home" and the highest order in Wilmington. The costumes will be varied, representing Nations far and near. There will be Spanish, Dutch, in fact, the costuming and electrical features will be one of the many alluring and enticing drawing cards. Never before has such an array of drawing numbers been gotten together in this city. Mr. Foote has worked diligently in this particular line and crowded his new production with fancy and stage dancing that is sure to please the audience. Besides the many dancing numbers there will be heard the best soloists in many pretty and catchy songs, duets, quartettes and choruses. Two different plays have been rehearsed, one for the afternoon matinees and one for the night show, so two tickets are absolutely necessary to see the entire Spielgartenfest. Last year's production of Slumberland was beautiful but those having the Spiel in charge claim that this new play will be even better than Slumberland. All of the dancing steps and ensembes were composed for the occasion by Mr. Foote, who is without a peer in this line of work. By the way Mr. Foote is a graduate and possess diplomas from three different associations of Dancing Masters and is conceded to be one of the foremost teachers in this country He will assist in the night performances in a singing and dancing number with one of Wilmington's first daughters.

As great crowds have already secured tickets for the Spiel, the ladies request all desiring special reservations to be on hand early Wednesday morning when the reserved seat sale and exchanging of tickets begins at the Academy box office.

The Caveny Entertainers.

The second number in the Lyceum course of attractions at the Boys' Brigade armory last evening, the Caveny Entertainers, was greatly enjoyed by a large and cultured audience. Mr. J. Franklin Caveny was the principal of the entertainers and well sustained his reputation as a cartoonist, crayon artist, clay modeler and impersonator. He was especially good with the crayon and his cartoons embraced not only well known subjects, but he also selected material from the audience and produced no end of amusement and wonderment at his consummate skill. Mrs. Marie Caveny charmed her hearers with her delighful soprano voice and favored the audience with instrumenatl sections while Mr. Caveny occupied the platform with his really marvellous exhibition.

The next number of the lyceum course is the Orphean Quartette, which is said to be exceedingly good, and the date for which is Dec. 21st.

The Crystal Palace.

With a splendid bill the Crystal Palace entered another week yesterday and at each performance there was a large and well pleased audience The LaPearle Sisters have an act consisting of novelty dances as well as songs which greatly please. Mr. Martin Boru is one of the clever black face comedians who makes a good many hearty laughs. Miss Mabel Bondel is a popular soubrette with the latest songs and is a jolly entertainer.

At the Bijou Today.

Two fine pictures will be shown at the Bijou today. They are entitled "A Game With Fame" an emotional drama, and "The Hoodoo," an American comedy that is replete with laughable incidents. Both are pictures of unusual interest and will doubtless be seen by large audiences.

At Joyland.

Two big feature pictures will be offered at Joyland today, "A Woman's Wit," a Mexican drama, full of thrills, and the big comic picture, "Monkey Shines." The illustrated song feature will be "In the City Where Nobody Cares."

FROM THE SUNNY SOUTH LAND.

Among the many gifts that Nature has lavished on the South none is more valuable than her gift of the cotton plant. In the soil, warmth and sunshine of the South, the cotton plant attains its highest perfection. Formerly, only the white, downy lint of the cotton boll was preserved, but today, from the kernel of the cotton seed is pressed an oil which, when refined, compares favorably with the purest olive oil. From the choicest of this oil of the cotton seed is made a cooking fat called Cottolene. In efficiency, purity and wholesomeness, Cottolene far excels the fat of the hog, and it has well been named, "Nature's gift from the Sunny South."

Services Today Will be Conducted by Rev. Thos. A. Smoot.

Much interest is being taken by members of the Y. M. C. A. and others in the observance of this week as a Week of Prayer and the services being held at the rooms of the association are largely attended. The services this afternoon from 1:05 to 1:30 o'clock will be conducted by Rev. Thos. A. Smoot, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, and the subject will be Adult Bible Class Day, and the foreign topic will be South America. There will also be services at the Y. M. C. A. this morning at 9 o'clock and tonight from 9:30 to 10 o'clock. The young men of the city whether members or not are cordially invited to attend.

The Bible Study Class met for the fellowship supper and study last night at the usual hour. The class desires to thank Mr. W. M. Cumming for having the ceiling of the class room papered since the last meeting. The ladies of the Auxiliary served a very tempting supper last night, the menu including fried and stewed oysters, stewed corn, creamed potatoes, rolls, coffee, tea, milk and pies. The major portion of the expense of these weekly suppers is borne by the association and the members in attendance are required to pay only 10 cents a week. Following the supper the class meets for Bible study for 25 minutes with Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure as teacher. It is hoped that a large number of the members of the association will join the class and attend regularly.

COTTON MARKET GOES LOWER

Not Particularly Active Yesterday, But Very Nervous—Foreign Advices Bullish—Decline Fifteen Points.

New York, Nov. 14.—The cotton market was not particularly active today, but ruled very nervous with prices working lower under scattered realizing and more aggressive selling, which appeared to be encouraged by larger estimates of the crop, predictions of a bearish ginning report, and increasing receipts. The close was barely at a net decline of 4 to 19 points.

The market opened steady at an advance of two points on November which was influenced by a little covering, but at a decline of 6 to 8 points on later deuveries which responded to somewhat disappointing cables and selling on reports that the crop estimate of members of the Memphis Cotton Exchange placed the probale yield at 12,1:9,122 bales. There was considerable covering by sellers of last week and support from Southern bull leaders on a scale down, but Memphis was a seller here on rumors that preliminary reports to the National Ginners' Indicated a large ginning to the close of business on November 12th, and prices gradually worked off to a net loss of about 15 to 23 points. From this level there was a rally of 6 to 7 points on covering and further support from the bull leaders, but the market continued nervous and last prices were not far from the lowest on the more active positions. Possibly part of the selling was inspired by a report that a prominent Southern crop expert after investigating the extent of damage from the freeze late in October, had reaffirmed a previous crop estimate of 12,600,000 bales, and there was some talk of renewed short time among Fall River mills. On the other hand, trade advices from Liverpool were bullish, one private cable being received to the effect that Manchester was on the eve of a boom and another, stating that Baxarian spinners were getting under contract a year ahead.

Southern spot markets, officially reported early, were generally unchanged except Savannah, which was 5-16 cents down from last Friday. The census report on ginning will be issued next Monday morning.

Receipts of cotton at the ports today 61,163 bales against 54,728 last week and 45,322 last year. For the week 350,000 bales against 376,608 last week and 277,066 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 16,911 bales against 7,804 last year, and at Houston 27,609 bales against 18,726 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 15 points lower; middling uplands 14.65; middling gulf 14.90; sales 1,100 bales.

Cotton futures opend steady and closed barely steady.

SLIGHT ADVANCES IN STOCKS

Market Narrowed Into Professional Groove—Steel, Union Pacific and Reading Leaders—An Organized Party.

New York, Nov. 14.—The stock market narrowed into a profesional groove again today, an organized party in the speculation took up the movement for an advance in prices, where it left off on the eve of the elections. Apparently the conviction that profit-taking sales prompted by the election were declared up by last week's operations offered the principal basis for the revived movement.

The scanty offerings of stocks at any level of prices today went to justify this assumption and gave facility to the attempt to lift prices. The advances, in fact, were accomplished on light transactions in the absence of obstacles to be encountered in the form of heavy selling orders. Three stocks—United States Steel, Union Pacific and Reading—still absorbed an overwhelming proportion of the total dealings. Union Pacific moved into second place at the expense of Reading and in the first hour's business actually outnumbered United States Steel itself in the number of shares which changed hands. In the later stages the trading became languid, but most of the gains were held.

The prominence of Union Pacific in the dealings was accomplished by the circulation of rumors that it was to be admitted to the Paris course.

No authentic information could be had on the alleged Paris listing prospect.

A sustaining influence for stocks was the good showing made by the banks in the weekly return on Saturday. The substantial cash gain and, especially, the reduction in the excess of loans over deposits made an impression of growing health in the banking position. The call loan market was easier in consequence. The return to work of the striking express drivers in New York relieved stocks from one factor of depression.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $1,629,000. United States 3's registered 1-2c. on call. Total sales for the day 489,100 shares.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Indications of a strong arm under the market had a powerful effect in the wheat pit today than open selling by the interests that have led the buying for more than a week. HUBBARD BROS. REVIEW.

Cables Lower and American Market Was Easier—Wall Street.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Nov. 14.—Cables were lower this morning. Owing to the freer movement of the crop on Saturday, therefore, opened easier selling off on orders from Liverpool and some selling from spot houses. The contracts being taken by Wall Street people, who regarded today's easiness as in the nature of a natural reaction and expect that the market will easily recover on any favorable news, the interiar movement was heavier and it looks as if the semiweekly receipts would aggregate 131,000 bales. Some discussion is rife concerning the next ginners' report which by some is expected to again be heavy. It is well to remember that the period this year contains one more Sunday than the corresponding two weeks last season which should make a difference of 100,000 bales. Moreover, Texas should hardly gin as heavily as in the last report unless indeed estimates as to the crop in that State have been under the yield. Liverpool is due some two to three points lower in the morning. HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

SENATOR CLAY IS DEAD.

Georgian Passed Away Sunday After Extended Illness—Details.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 13.—United States Senator Alexander Stephens Clay, of Georgia, died at the Robertsoin sanitarium here this afternoon at 3 o'clock after an extended illness. His death was as peaceful as it was sudden. He had been talking with his son, Herbert, a few minutes when he suddenly ceased speaking and fell back with a slight gasp.

During the morning and afternoon the Senator appeared in better spirits than usual, the attending physician stating that he was aparently recovering from the slight relapse of Saturday. Mrs. Clay came to Atlanta from their home at Marietta in the morning, but when she found the Senator so much improved, returned to Marietta about noon. The only member of the family present at the deathbed was the Senator's son, Harbert, who is mayor of Marietta.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Committees were designated today by Vice President Sherman and Speaker Cannon to represent the Senate and House at the funeral of Senator Clay, of Georgia, which is to be held on Wednesday. Senators Bacon, Bailey, Taliaferro, Foster, Tillman, Paynter, Hale, Lodge, Clapp, Scott, Overman, Depew, Johnston, Dupont, Smith, of South Carolina, Oliver, Swanson, Dick and Frazier compose the Senate committee.

The House committee will consist of the entire Georgia delegation and Representatives Clark and Sparkman, of Florida; Clayton, of Alabama; Moon, of Tennessee, and Finley, of South Carolina.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 14.—Governor J. M. Brown today issued a proclamation ordering all State house offices closed on Wednesday during the hours of the funeral of United States Senator A. S. Clay, of Georgia, who died in a sanatarium Sunday afternoon. The State flag will remain at half mast for ten days.

The funeral will be held at noon Wednesday from the Methodist church at Marietta. Interment will be in the Marietta Cemetery.

CREW AND VESSEL LOST.

Barge Baroness Rammed by Unknown Square Rigger.

Newport News, Va., Nov. 14.—Carrying with her to a watery grave Capt. Soderberg and his crew of five men the whaleback barge Baroness, bound from Newport News for Providence, R. I., in tow of the whaleback steamer Bayport, sank off Fire Island, N. Y., last Thursday night after being run down by an unknown square rigged ship.

News of the tragedy was received here this morning in a telegram from Boston to Henry B. Holmes, local agent of the White Oak Coal Company, which owned both the barge and the steamer. Few details were given, but the wire stated that after the collision the Bayport stood by and when daybreak came she began searching for the barge. The search lasted all Thursday. Thursday night and Friday, but no trace of the barge could be found. After abandoning the search far out in the Atlantic the Bayport continued on to Boston and reported the accident.

BETTER PAY FOR PREACHERS.

Methodist Bishop's Plea Before the Home Mission Board.

New York, Nov. 14.—White Methodist ministers of Southern conferences are working for $230 a year, according to Bishop William F. Anderson, of Tennessee, who made a plea for larger appropriations before the Home Mission Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church tonight. He added that in the upper Mississippi conference a negro body received $700 more than it asked and that the colored pastor in one district was doing so well that he was loaning out money at six per cent. interest.

After considerable debate $500 was taken from he upper Mississippi (negro) appropriation and $300 of it will go to the Italian mission at Yonkers, where a married pastor is receiving $500 a year. The remaining $200 is to be used in New York. The Southern conferences that formed the theme of Bishop Anderson's plea were left out.

Bishop Charles W. Smith, of Oregon, formerly of the South, argued against increasing the Southern appropriation.

"To give more to those Southern conferences," he said, "is simply spoiling them. We are trying to get to the point where churches will be self-supporting. Some of the churches for which pleas are being made have been receiving aid from this mission board for 35 years and they're no better off now than they were then."

OPPOSE THAW PROTESTS.

Slayer of White is Still Confined in Matteawan Asylum.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 14.—Attorney General O'Mally filed in the Court of Appeals today affidavits in opposition to the appeal of Mrs. Mary C. Thaw in her application for the transfer of her son, Harry K. Thaw, who killed Stanford White, from Matteawan State hospital to some other asylum within the State. Among the affidavits is one by Dr. Amos T. Baker, the first assistant physician at Matteawan, who says Thaw's surroundings in Matteawan are more congenial than they would be in a civil institution. The appeal probably will be argued Friday. Dr. Baker alleges that since Thaw was committed to Matteawan he has gained 37 pounds in weight, is permitted to play cards with congenial companions; to receive visitors; take outdoor exercise; read the best of literature, and is not compelled to associate with any one who is not his equal intellectually and morally.

One of Mrs. Thaw's contentions is that her son is compelled to associate with patients who use vile language in his presence and who often assault him. Dr. Baker says these assertions are wholly unfounded.

FOR RED CROSS SOCIETY.

Campaign in Washington And New York For Funds.

Washington, Nov. 14.—In an effort to raise $2,000,000 for the American National Red Cross Endowment committees in various large cities throughout the country tomorow will take up the proposition of getting ten cents from every inhabitant in their respective localities.

For the City of Washington President Taft has appointed a committee of 36 business men who are expected to raise $33,000 from the 330,000 residents. Before leaving for Panama the President wrote a letter urging the committee not to fail in its object.

New York, Nov. 14.—New York has taken the lead in the movement to provide an endowment fund for the Red Cross, it was announced today, subscriptions in this city to the amount of $329,000 having been received. The endowment fund is being raised through committees appointed by President Taft in all the larger cities of the country. Each committee is to raise its share at the rate of ten cents per capita of population, and New York's share is $500,000.

Ordinary receipts Saturday were $3,305,591, with disbursements of $3,581,785.

The deficit to date for the fiscal year is $12,101,926, as against $27,182,028 at this time last year.

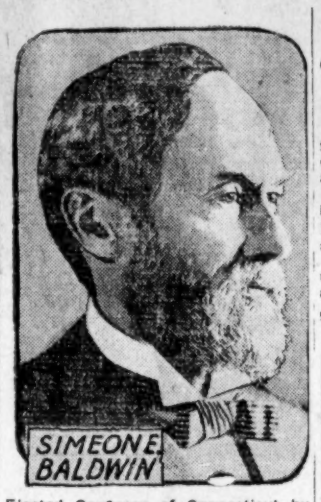
TWO DEAD FROM POISON.

Wealthy Planter and Wife Victims —Left a Fortune.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 14.—William Sprayberry, aged 90, a wealthy planter of DeKalb county and his wife, aged 85, are dead, and three negro servants employed on the plantation are seriously ill, the result, according to physicians, of potomaine poisoning. Mrs. Sprayberry died early Sunday morning and her husband Sunday night, but the facts did not become known until today. Sprayberry left a fortune estimated at $100,000. They had no children, but there are numerous relatives.

New York, Nov. 14.—Jack Quinn, pitcher, and Earl Gardner, second baseman, have signed with the New York Americans for 1911, according to announcement made tonight.



Elected Governor of Connecticut by Grace of Roosevelt.

COUNT TOLSTOI FOUND.

Aged Writer Ill With Fever and Probably Will Not Recover.

Tula, Russia, Nov. 14.—Broken down by the hardships of a Winter journey, mental strain and a rupture with his family, Count Leo Tolstoi tonight lies with a high fever in the little railroad staton at Astapova, barely 80 miles from his home at Yasbaya Poliana. Tolstoi is attended by Dr. Makovetsky, who was his sole companion when he left his peasant hut a few days ago and who carried along with him medicaments for just such an emergency. Tolstoi's daughter, Alexandra, is acting as his nurse.

Telegraphic reports of his condition are far from favorable. Indeed they are considered extremely pessimistic. The temperature of the aged writer is 104, indicating probably a serious congestion and of itself an alarming symptom in one of Tolstoi's years. The mental anguish of the patient handicaps the efforts of the physician to reduce the fever. Even if Count Tolstoi recovers there can be no question of his continuing the journey to the Caucasus where he hoped to end his life among the Tolstoian colony on the shores of the Black Sea.

"BAD JAKE" SHOT DOWN.

Ketuckian Riddled With Bullets.—Victim Had Killed Three.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 14.—"Bad Jake" Noble, who shot and killed Jailer Wesley Turner, of Breathitt county, in Jackson, last Tuesday night was shot to death by a sheriff's posse in Knott county today. Only meagre details have been received, but it is reported that when the posse led by the sheriff of Knot county called on Noble to surrender he made a demonstration to resist, and was promptly riddled with bullets. Rewards aggregating $700 has been offered by the authorities of Breathitt county for the capture of Noble dead or alive.

Noble, who was 22 years old, had previously killed three men. After the shooting down of Jailer Turner, he escaped into the mountains and several men had been searching for him since that time. Noble was first heard from in Lost Creek Valley, where for two days he was under the protection of armed henchmen. The first message was: "If you send a posse to attempt to arrest men, you had better send along a coffin for each man."

FATHER AND SONS FOUGHT.

Engaged in Shooting Affair—One Dying and Two Wounded.

Bristol, Tenn., Nov. 14.—As the resulet of a shooting affray engaged in by William Jett, a wealthy farmer and stock raiser, and his two sons, Scott Jett and Clarence Jett, in the family home near Mendota, Va., Saturday, Scott Jett is dying, while his brother Clarence, and the father, are dangerously wounded.

The sons were abput to dispose of property intending to leave home, when the father, who is said to have been drinking, opened fire on the sons. Scott Jett, was shot in the abdomen and Clarence Jett was wounded in the neck. One of the sons returned his father's fire, the bullet taking effect in the latter's left breast near the heart.

Coming to New York for First Time Since Election.

It will be Colonel Roosevelt's first trip to New York since the day before election. Since that time he has been resting. After spending the day in his office he will depart for Washington, where he will address the Georgraphical Society in the evening.
